

Bath

England

- Famed for its Roman spa and Georgian architecture, the UNESCO World Heritage city of Bath has long been celebrated as a wellness and cultural retreat.
- Discover filming locations for Netflix hit series Bridgerton as you explore the city, including No. 1 Royal Crescent and the Holburne Museum.
- Celebrate Bath's most famous resident at the Regency-themed Jane Austen Festival or learn more at the Jane Austen Centre.
- Unwind in the mineral-rich waters of Thermae Bath Spa's rooftop pool.

©VisitBritain

Fun Fact

Bath's Pulteney Bridge, designed in 1769 by Robert Adam, is one of only four bridges in the world to feature shops the entire length of both sides.

Did you know?

Bath has more museums in one square mile than any other English city, including the House of Frankenstein and the grand Holburne Museum.

©Jane Austen Centre

Things to do in Bath

©Jane Austen Centre

Brit Movies film locations tour

History meets Hollywood on this filming locations walking tour packed with behind-the-scenes gossip of best-loved Netflix shows.

www.britmovietours.com/bookings/bridgerton-tour-bath

Walcot Artisan Quarter

From classic vinyl to royal-themed ceramics and second-hand books – this vibrant shopping area has it all. Don't miss the popular Saturday flea market!

www.visitbath.co.uk/shopping/shopping-areas/walcot-artisan-quarter

Thermae Bath Spa

Britain's only natural thermal spa, located in the historic city centre, offers the ultimate in relaxation.

www.thermaebathspa.com

Savouring Bath

Indulge in foodie delights on a city tour with a bite to it! Stroll through Bath's cobblestoned streets while tucking into locally baked buns, artisanal treats and seasonal produce.

www.savouringbath.com

Bath Festival

Books and music take centre stage at Bath Festival – with author talks, live concerts, novel signings and more.

www.bathfestivals.org.uk/the-bath-festival/

Jane Austen Centre

Fans of the author won't want to miss this museum, which chronicles Jane Austen's life and times.

www.visitbritainshop.com/world/en/jane-austen-exhibition-centre

No.1 Royal Crescent

Explore fashionable life in 18th-century Georgian Bath at this restored townhouse museum, which had a starring role in Bridgerton.

www.no1royalcrescent.org.uk

Discover the best of Bath

©VisitBritain

Like... taking to the water

For a quirky and fun way to tour the city, hire a Bath Narrowboat and set sail across the Kennet and Avon Canal.

www.visitbath.co.uk/things-to-do/bath-narrowboats-day-boat-hire-p1103503

Love... a stand-up paddleboarding adventure

Practice balancing skills on the River Avon for a unique way to see Bath from the water.

www.originalwild.com/stand-up-paddleboarding-in-bath

Seasonal highlights

Spring

Autumn

Winter

Summer

Bath Hot Air Balloon Ride

Soar up high over the city on a hot air balloon adventure, offering a unique perspective of the region. Catch glimpses of Bath's Roman remains and historic architecture, and enjoy sweeping views of the Somerset countrysides.

[www.virginballoonflights.co.uk/
location/bath](http://www.virginballoonflights.co.uk/location/bath)

Glastonbury Festival

This world-renowned music and arts event boasts a diverse line-up of bands and performers across various genres, from pop music to stand-up comedy, alongside art installations and an eclectic film programme.

www.glastonburyfestivals.co.uk

Skyline perspectives

Wander up to Solsbury Hill for skyline views over the city, stretching out to the rolling countryside beyond. This elevated spot is ideal for a peaceful hike or a scenic place to relax.

[www.nationaltrust.org.uk/visit/
bath-bristol/bath-skyline/bath-skyline-walk](http://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/visit/bath-bristol/bath-skyline/bath-skyline-walk)

Bath at Christmas

From an amble through its traditional Christmas market to a twilight swim at the city's rooftop pool, winter is a magical time in Bath filled with plenty of festive fayre and twinkling lights.

[www.visitbath.co.uk/inspire-me/
bath-at-christmas](http://www.visitbath.co.uk/inspire-me/bath-at-christmas)

Places to stay in Bath

Central Bath

Most of the historical and cultural gems can be found in the centre of Bath. The oldest part of the city boasts handsome Georgian architecture, and it is the only place in Britain where visitors can bathe in natural thermal hot springs.

Walcot

Walcot is a vibrant, bohemian district north of the city centre, known for its eclectic mix of independent shops, artisan markets, cosy cafes and a lively arts scene.

Victoria Park

Victoria Park is a leafy neighbourhood centred around the expansive Royal Victoria Park, perfect for relaxing strolls, picnics and family-friendly activities, with nearby attractions like the Botanical Gardens and the Royal Crescent.

Find accommodation in Bath

www.visitbath.co.uk/where-to-stay

Getting around

Bath's coach, bus and railway stations are located in the heart of the city. The city centre is compact and best explored on foot.

By bus

Bath's public bus service is well connected throughout the city and beyond.

First West Bus is the largest operator. Why not try a 'hop on, hop off' city sightseeing bus tour.

By train

The city's major railway station is Bath Spa in the city centre.

By bike

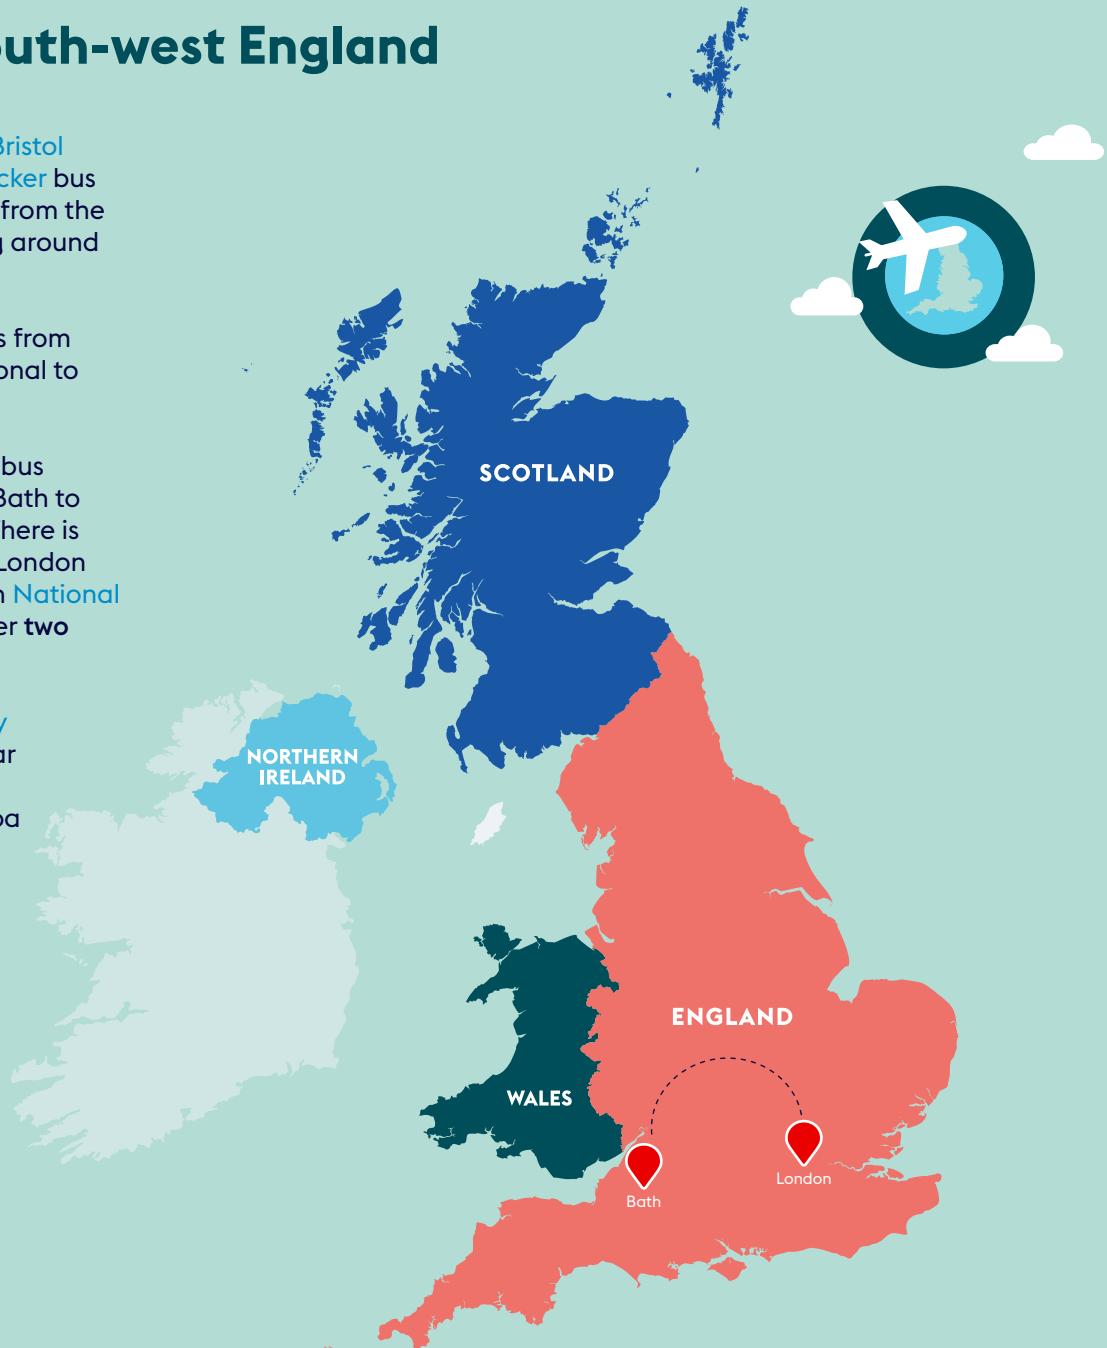

With several self-service hire stations around the city, traffic-free cycle routes and the Bristol to Bath Cycle Path, this scenic city is easy to explore by bike.

Getting to Bath

Located in south-west England

-  The closest airport is Bristol Airport. The A4 Air Decker bus offers a direct service from the airport to Bath, taking around 45 minutes.
-  There are direct flights from Birmingham International to Bristol (1 hour).
-  First Bus is the largest bus operator connecting Bath to Bristol and the West. There is a coach service from London Heathrow to Bath with National Express taking just over two hours.
-  Great Western Railway (GWR) operates regular services from London Paddington to Bath Spa train station taking around 80 minutes.

Want to know more?

Visit West
www.visitwest.co.uk/trade

For more information
www.visitbritain.org/destinations

