Domestic Trip Tracker – Easter 2018

Approach and Sample
VisitEngland commissions online omnibus surveys periodically in order to collect data on the number of GB consumers who plan to take an overnight trip at key times throughout the year.

In this Easter 2018 edition, the survey was carried out on an online omnibus by the research agency TNS, with a representative sample of 1228 adults aged 16 and over in Great Britain.

The fieldwork for the survey took place between the 22nd-26th of March. Good Friday bank holiday 2018 falls on the 30th March, while Easter Monday is the 2nd of April. In 2017, the Good Friday bank holiday fell on the 14th April, while Easter Monday was the 17th April, and fieldwork for the 2017 survey took place between the 6th-10th April 2017.

Key Insights

Overnight Trips

- 17% of adults in Britain ‘definitely’ plan to take an overnight trip over the Easter weekend, with a further 18% undecided. This is a decrease on Easter 2017 where 20% were ‘definitely’ planning a trip and 23% were undecided.
- Among those who ‘definitely’ or ‘might’ take a trip over the bank holiday weekend, 52% plan to take a holiday or short break, while 55% will visit friends or relatives.
- As has been the case in previous years, those aged under 45 are more likely to be planning or considering a trip than those aged 45+. Just under half of those aged under 45 (48%) ‘definitely’ or ‘might’ take a trip, compared with under a quarter of those aged 45 and older (23%). Parents (51%) are also more likely to be planning or considering a trip than those without children (29%).
- Those living in Greater London (40%) and East / West Midlands (39%) are more likely to say that they ‘definitely’ or ‘might’ take an overnight trip than those living in the other English regions.
- Among the 18% of respondents who are undecided about whether to take an Easter trip this year, the most common reasons are ‘waiting to see what the weather is like’ (45%) and ‘waiting to see if I can afford it’ (32%). The weather is notably more of a concern this year than last (35%); affordability is also a greater concern than it was last year (29%).
