

30 March - 7 April 2019

ENGLISH

- TOURISM WEEK -

In association with

VisitEngland

#EnglishTourismWeek19

Get involved in English Tourism Week 2019

One of the highlights of England's tourism calendar, English Tourism Week kicks off the summer season with a week-long celebration of the quality and vibrancy of our thriving industry.

English Tourism Week works best when everyone participates! So turn over and find out how.

📄 EnglishTourismWeek.org
📍 @VisitEnglandBiz
#EnglishTourismWeek19

📍 Isle of Wight, England.

📍 Brixton, London, England.

📍 Bakewell, Derbyshire, England.

30 March –
7 April 2019

English Tourism Week offers a great opportunity for you to showcase your local tourism offer and inspire visitors, consumers, local residents and stakeholders to visit.

📄 EnglishTourismWeek.org
🐦 @VisitEnglandBiz
#EnglishTourismWeek19

CELEBRATE YOUR INDUSTRY

It's easy to take part, simply:

- 1) Start planning your activities for the week. This can include special offers, discounts, fun events and promotions for visitors, local residents, stakeholders and more.
- 2) Download our free toolkit of logos and posters from EnglishTourismWeek.org to help you brand and promote your events to your stakeholders and visitors.
- 3) Register your events and offers on our dedicated events platform at EnglishTourismWeek.com for a chance of promotion across VisitEngland's consumer website and social channels, as well as to media, trade, MPs and industry.
- 4) Use the hashtag #EnglishTourismWeek19 on social media to encourage your visitors, customers and even local residents to come to your events and share their photos and experiences on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn and more.

So start getting involved and let the world know all that is great and wonderful about English tourism!

Download the toolkit: EnglishTourismWeek.org
Share your events: EnglishTourismWeek.com