Aviation profile

Australia

Outbound travel to the UK

Australia has a highly complex aviation market. With extensive outbound seat capacity, Australian travellers have a diverse range of affordable options for travelling to the UK, with connecting flights via aviation hubs in South East Asia, North Asia, the Middle East and North America to gateway cities across the UK, including London Heathrow, London Gatwick, London Stansted, Manchester, Birmingham, Edinburgh and Cardiff.

Annual visits

In 2019

Over 1.1 million visits

Weekly departing seats (2019)

To gateway cities which have routes to the UK

348,866

There is one non-stopping flight from Australia to the UK

London Heathrow

Perth

1,657 weekly departing seats in 2019

Routes from Australia to hub locations in 2019

There are four main gateway hubs en-route from Australia to the UK (2019)

SOUTH EAST ASIA

35 routes

144,331 seats to hub per week

NORTH EAST ASIA

52 routes

101,597 seats to hub per week

MIDDLE EAST, INDIA, AFRICA

17 routes

63,139 seats to hub per week

AMERICAS

13 routes

39,799 seats to hub per week

Note:

Figures in this infographic are based on routes from Australia to gateway hubs from which it is possible to travel to the UK. They do not represent confirmed seat capacity from Australia to the UK.

VisitBritain

Level 16, The Gateway,
1 Macquarie Place,
Sydney, NSW 2000, Australia

+61 (0) 28 247 2272

VisitBritain.AustraliaTrade@visitbritain.org

Source: Apex, International Passenger Survey by ONS